

ABOUT Pr. April Gant

Co-Pastor (Pr) April Gant is a woman who inspires and empowers the lives of those she encounters. Her passion for life is to make a difference in the lives. She believes excuses should not exist in a dreamer's life and she believes all dreams are possible. Her goal is to ignite people from within and equip them with tools to move forward. Her mission is to motivate, educate and challenge individuals and organizations to EVOLVE into their purpose.

Pr. April Gant received her Barber-Stylist license from the state of Florida in 1990. She got the call and was ordained as a leader in ministry over 20 years ago while under the leadership of the late Apostle R.J. Washington at Titus Harvest Dome Spectrum Church. While there the anointing of counsel, wisdom and spiritual insight began to greatly increase in her life and God used her to strongly impact the lives of many people. Since then she was ordained as Co-Pastor at Impact Outreach Ministries in Jacksonville, Florida. During her 10-year tenure, she an employee of the Duval County Public School System as a Bookkeeper III. Her area of expertise resonates with training others on the policies and procedures of bookkeeping. She is currently seeking to finish her Bachelor's Degree in Accounting.

Pr. April Gant is the dynamic author of an inspirational book entitled "Breathe Again." She also writes the Sister-Friend article in Inspiring Magazine, a multi-state media. Pr. April is an energetic instructor, leader and a successful entrepreneur. She has been the co-owner and operator of Creative Touch Beauty & Barber Salon for over 20 years. Pr. April has the innate ability to delve into the hearts and minds of individuals and understand what causes them to "EVOLVE. This, along with her keen desire to help individuals and organizations accomplish their goals, is the passion that energizes her love for coaching.

Now serving as an innovative Life Coach she is sold out to God. Co-Pr. believes in healing, deliverance and is committed to winning souls at any cost. She desires to see all of God's people experience NEXT LEVEL PURPOSE! As Co-Pastor of Impact Outreach Ministries she also works faithfully alongside of her husband, Pastor Michael Gant. She is the proud mother of Tonglia, Michael L., Kristen, LaVar, LaTia and Michael A.). Her goal in life is to continue to EVOLVE.